

“For Your Information”

(A periodic publication by Sherwood Oaks Executive Director, Annette McPeck)

January 7, 2020

Medical Office Suite Reopens

The medical office and community nursing office will reopen on Wednesday, January 8. This is the only area on the lower level that will reopen at this time. Other updates will be made available later this week.

New Dietitian

Please join me in welcoming Registered Dietitian, Adrienne Mauri to the Dining Services team. If you would like to speak to Adrienne, she can be reached at ext. 8511.

Newspaper Delivery

On December 31, many newspapers switched carrier contracts in this area. This means there are now multiple carriers in addition to Clay Goehring. Clay is only contracted to deliver the Post-Gazette to your residences; delivery days are Thursdays, Fridays and Sundays. All other newspapers are delivered to the reception desk 7 days per week. If you are missing a newspaper, you are urged to contact the newspaper directly to file a complaint.

Intersection of Progress Lunch and Presentation

The Butler County Chamber of Commerce along with Cranberry Township Business Hub and sponsors are holding a lunch and presentation to update the community on the Route 228 and Route 19 corridor. This event is being held on Wednesday, January 15 at 11:30 a.m. at the Regional Learning Alliance. There is no charge to attend; however, reservations are required by phone at 724-283-2222 or email at Jennifer@ButlerCountyChamber.com. The detailed flyer and sign-up sheet for the bus is posted on the transportation bulletin board in the mail room.

Resident Get Together

The first resident get together of 2020 is Thursday, January 16 at 10:30 a.m. in the Auditorium and Card Room. Our guest speakers this month are: Epiphany Gray, Skilled Nursing Administrator, Becky McGinnis, Director of Social Services, and Roberta Breninghouse, Director of Recreational Therapy. These ladies will be giving an overview of their departments. I will also give a brief update on the community.

Yellow Jacket Meeting

Roberta Breninghouse will hold a yellow jacket meeting on Friday, January 17 at 2:00 p.m. in the Card Room. The guest speaker will be Maria Massucci from Family Hospice. If you have questions about the meeting or would like to become a yellow jacket, feel free to contact Roberta at ext.8471.

Focus Groups/Kitchen Tours

Sign-up sheets for Dining Services' focus groups and kitchen tours are posted on the administrative bulletin board in the mail room. There are still spots left if you are interested.